Their rule is unbounded egocentricity. They used truth to acknowledge appearance and make the fake be believed. They consider the others like means. They don't do that for you. They use you, your work and your knowledge to impose their will to everyone.

How can you let some of you, opposing very few others, to take you for a ride, to tell you lies, to use you and impose their will without you even realizing? How can you allow a little organized group to govern the world by using your intelligence and your work? How can you let a few tenths of you to make you undergo the insecurity of present and future, with the risk of enormous productive, commercial, financial, monetary and military collapses? How can you let that tenth of you to have a fifth of all the worlds wealth at their disposal? How can you let your soldiers die, not for someone else's life, freedom or happiness but just for the enforcement of the power of who wants to continue to keep in his hands the destiny of all of you?

How many wars, how many dead, how much desperation, how much poverty, how much fear is still missing for you to make yourselves be understood? You find out who your real enemies are. Take a look around. Ask yourselves: «Who's is this? Who's is that?» Search deeply and find out who's they are! Don't surrender when facing appearances. They know how to hide behind others. They know how to mask their activities and put a screen between you and them. They know that you really wouldn't like reality to be different from what you know. They don't want you to know they exist. They lead your anxieties and your fears through a hope that effectively always remains just an illusion. As in Palestine, also in Iraq, in all Asia, in Africa, in Latin America and also in Europe. They are a little group of architects playing with more than six billions of human beings as if they where butterflies or ants. They are among you. They are made of flesh and bone like you. They eat, they drink, they hate, they love, they laugh, they cry and they die just like you all. They are only higher in rank. They watch with sufficiency everything lying under them: including you, your pride, your dignity, your intelligence, even your own life.

You can unmask those monsters. You can force them not to continue as they are doing. You can impose your will: trying to understand, refusing the easy and illusioning truths; collecting information; searching their nature and kind. You can free the world from those few tenths of people that dominate it in their own exclusive interest. You can free humanity from their rules. You have to do it for yourselves and for all the others. You have to believe you can succeed. You have to believe you can live friendly with all the other People. Everyone acknowledges you what is deserved and everyone will thank you if you will be able to get rid of them. You can ask for help. You can ask who knows them to explain their history, their aims and their methods. You can win. You can decide to change. If you want, you can do it with Africans, Americans, Asians, Australians and Europeans. You can do it with us. Do it, before it will be too late for all of us. Together it's possible. Then, all together we will be able to believe that all human beings are born the same and that we can all fight for our life, our freedom and our happiness.

What's the truth? You are the 4.58% of the world's population and you take up the 1.99% of the area, the 6.26 of the dry land, the 12.47% of the arable fields and the 7.92 of the irrigable fields on Earth. You have 77 and a half years average life expectancy, against a world average of 67 and a half. You're average age is 34 and a half years, against a world average of nearly 27 and a half.

About 7 million of you, the 3% of the population, are illiterates, against 985 million illiterates in the world, almost one fifth of the whole world population. You consume one third of the world's wealth, with a per capita average 4.6 times the worldwide one. You use one fourth of the energy on the planet.

You import the 76% more of what you export. You emit a currency with no value, which you impose to the world through politic and military hegemony. Despite having the 5% of the world's labour force and less than the 3% of unemployed people, you produce first of all dollars, which you use to purchase goods produced by other countries.

Your government has incomes par to 15.91% and expenses par to the 18.48% of the total of all the states of Earth. You have an enormous external debt and a third of the world's total national debt. You bear more than the 42% of the military expenses in the world.

You are uselessly indulging in mysticisms, esotericism, sectarianisms and fundamentalisms. Katrina isn't a divine punishment. As well as Hiroshima and Nagasaki bombs weren't and all the other dirty tricks your governments, your army, your security service and your enterprises have done and keep doing in the world weren't.

There is no God in your favour neither against you. You aren't destiny's chosen and neither the cancer of Earth. You are people like all the others are. It's this you have to understand at the end. And as everyone does, you have to work to live. You can consume what you produce without damaging the others. This you have to understand. You are late on it but you are still in time. And the soonest it will be, the less the costs we will all have to bear will be.

There won't be any Apocalypse. There won't be any Armageddon. History isn't a serial story. Neither future is. What happens on Earth, or the effects of what happens, natural catastrophes included, depend on the human
